SPECTACLES Vs. BLINDNESS.

VISION is justly described as the most important of our senses, and its loss is regarded as one of the greatest afflictions to which mankind is subject. It is, therefore, of paramount importance that we should carefully use our sight whilst perfect, and that when, unfortunately, the help of Spectacles is felt to be necessary, the utmost care should be taken in the selection of them. The late eminent Oculist, Dr. Soelberg Wells, testified that he had no hesitation in stating that the haphazard plan of soleoting Spectacles-employed by some Opticians-was frequently attended by serious consequences; that eyes were often permanently injured, which might, by skilful adaptation of glasses, have been preserved has fallen a little in Tonquin and risen in the Philippines. Gradients are very slight. however, and the Mail trusts that the Cloudy, warm and rather dry weather prevails.

Mr. Pollock, barrister-at-law, has accepted the position of Acting Police Magistrate, it being understood that he is at liberty to carry on his civil practice.

As we were going to press we received a copy of the report of the Douglas Steamship Company. The net profit for the year is $150,591.17 of which $62,628.80 is placed to Reservo Fund and 884,852 devoted to paying a dividend of 9 per cent. leaving a balance of $3,110.37.

THE following promotions are to take place in succession to General Sir F. C. A. Stelist :- Lieut.-General D. Anderson, Governor of the Royal Military College, to be General; Major-General W. G. Cameron, C.B., commanding the troops in China, Hongkong, and Straits Settlements, to be Lieutenant-General.

THE case in which Ho Chun, opium divan keeper, is charged with cutting and wounding a man in a Chinese gambling house on 28th May last, and which was committed for trial at the Supreme Court, was sent back to the Magistrate (Mr Wodehouse) the other day, to be dealt with summarily. To-day the case came before population at large was not implicated in Mr Wodehouse and on the application of Mr Hastings, who appeared for the prisoner, and who expressed a wish to obtain the decision of a Jury on the case, it was recommitted to the Supreme Court, subject to the decision of the Attorney General.

THE case against the three men charged with arson was continued at the Police Court to-day. Several witnesses were called for the defence, who gave evidence corroborative of what was stated yesterday. At the close Mr Wetton asked for adjournment, saying that he had a number of other witnesses, who were now in Canton and Macao, to call for the defence. Mr Wodehouse said he had resolved to commit the case for trial at the Supreme Court. MrWottonsaidhe would apply to the Crown to have the case remitted back, so that the concluding evidence might be taken. H Worship said he was at liberty to do so.

A widow named Chan Mun was charged at Police Court to-day with attempting to send the Colony. The complainant said she was the wife of a paper-maker living in the Shantak district. A woman named Ang told her she would get good employment in Hougkong. She agreed to come here, and when she arrived she was taken to a house where she remained four days. She was then told employment could not be got here, but a man living in foreign parts would give $130 to her to be a servant. She finally agreed to this. The defendant and was also on the wharf waiting her when she went to go on board the steamer. On the wharf, however, she mether husband and MR Hayter, the Government statist of Victoria, has compiled a table which shows that at the last census—that of 1881—there were 43.706 Chinamen in Australia and New Zealand. Their number is now 51,230, an increase which is certainly not proportion. ately greater than that of the white inhabitants during the past seven years. Queensland there are to-day 2,279 fewer Chinamen than in 1881, and in New Zealand their numbers have decreased by 516. On the other hand, there has been an increase in New South Wales of 6.023. and in South Australia of 2,749, the larger proportion having settled in the tropical northern territory, which is certainly better adapted for Chinese coolies than for European labourers. In Victoria, Tasmania. and Western Australia the numbers have I not materially altered. These figures hardly seem to justify the recent excitement about Chinese immigration. But what has happened is not always the measure of what time of peace when Japanese coal is better hay be expected.
